I simply had to put this on here. Some of you who notice details might have noticed the Pink Floyd poster behind Peter in some of his later videos. I recommended he see the movie version of The Wall and apparantly he liked it quite a bit. This is one of the more moving tributes I've ever seen, of any kind, not just tributes to Geriatric1927 and the song here "Goodbye Blue Sky" always choaks me up. I'd bet anything this will get to Peter. (Read More to see the video)
